Statement on the Emmett Street Apartments Project

Chicago, IL — Bickerdike Redevelopment Corporation is excited to share that we were just informed that the Emmett Street Apartments Project lawsuit, Sanchez v. Bickerdike - Case No. 20 CH 2206, was dismissed today!

Our belief in the importance of bringing 100 affordable units to the heart of Logan Square has never wavered. Our staff has been hard at work moving the project forward through the various City Council approvals, winning the final full City Council approval on May 20, 2020.

We're happy to have cleared this obstacle and will be working full steam ahead to get the financing on this project closed, and the construction started immediately following.
