Membership Application

In order to be eligible for membership, applicants must be approved by Bickerdike's Board of Directors and be in agreement with the Bickerdike mission ---

We, the members of Bickerdike Redevelopment Corporation, are committed to the redevelopment of the West Town, Humboldt Park, Logan Square and Hermosa communities for the benefit of and control by the lower and moderate income residents of these areas. We are deeply dedicated to preserving the ethnic and cultural character of our neighborhoods, while improving the economic conditions of the community. We carry out our mission by providing quality affordable housing, struggling against gentrification and displacement, promoting economic development by creating and preserving jobs, and advocating for additional resources. In all of our endeavors, we are committed to the principles of honesty, openness, democratic process, education, involvement and the empowerment of community residents' self-worth, self-respect and pride. Networking with other organization and stake holders who share the vision of all collective struggle of the community to control its own destiny is an integral component of Bickerdike's mission.
